Who we are

This research is being done by researchers at the University of Canterbury, the University of Otago, and Lincoln University. We are independent from ŌCHT (this means we do not work for ŌCHT and ŌCHT does not tell us what to say). ...and finally... THANK YOU again for completing the survey!

What this research is about

Transport and housing are very closely linked. Where you live influences the things you can do and where you can go. This can affect your health and wellbeing. ŌCHT has put shared cars and e-bikes in your community. We'll repeat our survey next year to see whether using the cars and bikes has led to any changes in your life. This year's results are about how things were before most people had used the shared cars and bikes.
